

DAY'S DOINGS OF NORTH SCRANTON

OPEN AIR CONCERT AT SQUARE BY BAUER'S BAND.

Joseph McCurran, a Newsboy, Had His Leg Fractured While Endeavoring to Get On an Electric Car. James J. Murphy Injured About Head and Chest at Leggett's Creek Breaker—Many Will Go to Pittston Today to Attend the Funeral of John R. Thomas.

The largest crowd that ever assembled on Providence square congregated last evening to hear the concert by Bauer's band. The concert was given from the Bristol house veranda, and was perhaps the finest ever heard in this part of the city.

The concert was brought to a close by the rendition of "The Star Spangled Banner." At the conclusion of the piece the cheering was so loud and prolonged that the members were compelled to repeat the selection.

NEWSBOY INJURED.

Joseph McCurran, a newsboy, was painfully injured yesterday afternoon while removing a bundle of papers from a street car. It is customary among the boys to make a special effort to get at the papers first if possible, as it allows them to depart on their routes that much sooner.

HURT IN THE MINES.

James J. Murphy, employed at the Leggett's Creek breaker, was quite painfully injured about the head and chest Wednesday. At the time of the accident he was assisting in replacing a derailed car, with the necessary implements. The engineer of the plane was given the signal to start. At the same instant the large rail which was being by Murphy swayed, striking him and throwing him under the car.

TOLD IN A FEW LINES.

The funeral of John R. Thomas, the soldier who died at Chickamauga, will occur today. The remains are to be interred at Pittston. A large number of his former friends and acquaintances will go down to attend the obsequies.

Wednesday evening Bible class No. 2, of the First Welsh Baptist Sunday school, Wayne avenue, presented its teacher, John C. Thomas, with a fine chair. The class, consisting of Mrs. W. H. Owen, Mrs. Elijah Young, Mrs. W. T. Thomas, Mrs. Thomas Griffiths, Mrs. David Gravel, Mrs. Albert Simms, Mrs. Samuel Howells, Mrs. W. F. Davies and Miss M. P. Davies, entered Mr. Thomas' home on Wayne avenue, about 8 o'clock, bearing the chair, which greatly surprised him.

Thomas Hall was arrested on complaint of Jennie Hall, who charged him with being drunk and disorderly. Alderman Fidler gave the defendant a hearing. John J. Jones, of this place, left yesterday for Pittsburg, where he expects to secure employment, and if successful will make that place his home.

GREEN RIDGE.

Mr. Allison Kinsley, of Penn avenue, has returned home after a few days' visit at Lake Ariel. Mrs. G. E. Hull, of Sanderson avenue, attended the funeral of Private Walter Porter, of Company D, Thirtieth regiment at Mosaic yesterday. Miss Emma Brundage, of Dickson avenue, has returned from a week's visit in New York city.

Mr. Carl Lorenz, the Lackawanna avenue druggist, has opened an elegant drug store at the corner of Washington avenue and Marion street. Mr. H. G. Burdick and family, of Monsey avenue, are spending a few days at Clark's Summit. Mrs. Stevens, of Wyoming, is the guest of her son, Judd Stevens, of Capouse avenue.

MINOOKA.

Miss Mary Tobin, of Plymouth, is the guest of Mrs. Mary Wallace, of Birney avenue. The employee of the Greenwood collieries will be paid Saturday. E. J. Georges, of Towanda, Pa., made a business trip through this section yesterday. The township auditors have refused to signify their approval of the report of the school district. The cause of the hitch is the exoneration list.

LIVE NEWS OF WEST SCRANTON

PATRIOTISM AT FLAG RAISING ON GAMMON'S HILL.

Marriage of Miss Carrie Dunn, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Dunn, to Emery Wandell at the Home of the Bride by Rev. J. J. Moffit—New Officers of Ivorites Installed—Presentation to the Lodge—Band of Hope Entertains.

Patriotism and enthusiasm linked arms last evening in the vicinity of North Fillmore avenue between Lafayette and Swetland streets, at the point known as Gammon's hill. And such they might, for it was the occasion of the raising of the Stars and Stripes. The raising served a two fold purpose, the one in honor of the presence of ten gallant young men of said section at the front, and the other as an indication that loyalty and Americanism of the Simon Purdy order exists therein.

BAND OF HOPE ENTERTAINS.

Many persons attended the entertainment given last evening by the members of the Band of Hope of the Summer Avenue Presbyterian church at the church. Bezael Davies acted as chairman and Mrs. John L. James was organist. Solos were sung by Miss Ida Palmer, Mrs. L. R. Foster, P. H. Warren and Thomas Peyton. Miss Edith and Edward Davies sang a duet. "Down Dewey's Way" was finely rendered by P. H. Warren and party. Recitations were given by the Misses Dolly Morgan, Mattie Hughes, Jennie Hughes and Geraldine Phillips.

TWO LADS ARE MISSING.

William Williams, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. David Williams, of Tenth street, is reported as missing. This is not a new record for William as he has frequently been missing, sometimes for two or three days at a time. If anyone should run across the lad they should try and persuade him to run home for his parents are rather anxious about him.

MINOR NEWS NOTES.

A special meeting of the West Side Republican league will be held this evening at their rooms on South Main avenue and every member is requested to be present. Business of importance will be transacted. The members of the Christian Endeavor society of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church met last evening at the church in regular session. Routine matters were transacted and the election of officers for the ensuing term was held. The next regular meeting of the society.

DUNN-WANDELL NUPTIALS.

Miss Carrie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Dunn, was united in marriage to Emery Wandell, of West mountain, at 8 o'clock last evening at the residence of the bride's parents, 1902 Washburn street. Only the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties were in attendance. The ceremony was performed in the parlor, which was artistically adorned with palms, cut flowers and the national colors. The couple stood beneath a canopy formed by draping a large American flag. Rev. J. P. Moffat, pastor of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church, officiated.

JOHN WOELKERS ARRESTED FOR ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

He Objected Strongly to Men Who Owed Him Good Sized Bill Getting Deeper Into His Debt—Miss Mame Dippre Tendered a Party by a Number of Friends at Her Home On Hickory Street—Farewell Party for Private John McGuinness, of Company B.

In Alderman Ruddy's court last night John Woelkers, a saloon keeper doing business at the corner of Prospect avenue and Cherry street, was arraigned for hearings on the charges of assault and battery, selling liquor without a license and selling on Sunday. The warrants were sworn out at the instance of Patrick Kelley, a neighbor. Woelkers was over to the central city yesterday afternoon and upon his return he found in his saloon a gang of men drinking. Upon investigation he learned that the consumers of his good wines were having the stuff charged to their accounts. Woelkers stated at the hearings that the men were indebted to him for much liquor and the bills were somewhat long standing. What he termed their audacity to add to their debts, angered him. He said many uncomplimentary things to the men and for a conclusion, it is alleged, he beat Kelley. The defendant was held in $1,000 bail for a further hearing this evening at 5 o'clock.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Miss Mame Dippre was given a party by a large delegation of her friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dippre, 208 Hickory street, last night. The affair was a pleasant one and thoroughly enjoyed. During the evening flashlights were taken of the gathering. A table abundantly laden with refreshments was served at 11 o'clock. Those in attendance were: Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dippre, Misses Ida Rencher, Alvina Smith, Louisa and Carrie Blatter, Kate and Mamie Ross, Anna Pontius, Anna Rencher, Carrie Kellerman, Julia Dankewitz, Minnie Haas, Mame Storr, Rose and Kate Wacey, Rosie Kuyler, Mammie Eidenboch, Lucy Pontius, Helen Williams, Katie Wickel, Anna and Louise Uhl and Charles Miller, Joe Heze, John Johnston, Charles Mirtz, John Heilla, George Wirtz, John Haas, Earnest Simon, August Freuhan, William Geiger, William Rosar, Russell Elias, Willie Dippre, Milo Dolph, Walter Henrich, Joseph G. Eiden, Henry Gleason, Willie Kaiser, Willie Schrank, John Astringer and Walter Lang. Miss Julia Kelley, of Stone avenue gave a party at her home Wednesday evening in honor of her guest, Miss Agnes O'Boyle, of Montana. The evening passed in a happy manner. A feature of the festivities was a recitation by Miss O'Boyle, taken from "Leah the Forsaken." Solos were pleasingly given by Misses Agnes Kelley, Edna Carroll and Margaret Noon, Joe Wilson and Matt Conlon. Dance music was played by Frank Shine, a pianist.

Mrs. Kelley's guests were: Misses Eliza and B. McGee, John Madigan, Andrew Hoban, of Carbondale; Edna Carroll, Margaret Noon, of Pittston; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, of Dunmore; Mr. and Mrs. David McDonald, Nellie Murray, Lizette O'Connor, Margaret Tuffey, Rose Auetin, of Green Ridge; Mary Tuffey, Frank Kelly, Morgan Tuffey, Frank Meyer, Frank Shine, Patrick Wren, Matt Conlon, John McHale. John McGuinness, a private in Company B, Thirtieth regiment, at Camp Alger, was given a farewell reception at his home on South Washington avenue, Wednesday night. Mr. McGuinness returns to camp today. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Suime, Mr. and Mrs. George Richards, Misses Mame, Annie, Belinda and Agnes Reap, Nellie Jones, Nellie Fahey, Dora Fahey, Fannie Tyrrell, Lizzie Johnson, Jessie Miller, Annie Norton, Julia Durkin, Tillie Ritter, Hanna Boland, Edward, Alice McGuinness, Laura McGuinness, Mrs. Patrick Reap, Mary Carey, Lillie Dusha, Lena Dusher, Maggie Jordan, and Mrs. James Farrell; William Reap, Frank Hizer, Arthur Meinzer, Fred Schuler, William Rempel, Archie Johnson, John Gilman, Martin Moffitt, Fred Miller, Anthony Miller, Henry Brown, Eddie McGuinness, James McGuinness, Julius Her, John Buckcamp, George Guisheit, Edward Furrie.

MINOR NEWS NOTES.

Misses Kate and Mame Judge gave a lawn party at their home on River street last night. It was attended by a large number of South Side young people. John Rauter, of Neptune place, celebrated his twenty-first birthday yesterday. The event was appropriately observed at his home last night.

NUBS OF NEWS.

The annual picnic of the Scranton Turn Verein and children's festival at Central park yesterday afternoon and evening was a highly enjoyable and successful affair. The exercises of the children was a pleasant feature. A. C. Cavanaugh, the grocer and livestock dealer, has added to the latter part of his business a handsome new coach and nickel plated harness. WHY WE GET TIRED. Popular Science Monthly. It is the general impression among athletes that exhaustion and loss of wind are due to the inability to consume sufficient oxygen and exhale rapidly enough carbonic dioxide. When the muscle is moving rapidly and forcibly it is true that it demands more oxygen and gives off to the blood more carbon dioxide than when at rest. When a man is running as fast as he can make his limbs move he is able to keep up the pace but for a short distance, unless, like the hunted hare, he runs to his death. On account of the forced, vigorous and rapid muscular action in this case, the poisonous materials are thrown into the blood, to be carried to all part of the body—muscles, nerves, brain. The heart is affected by the poison through the nerve cells controlling that organ; the muscles of respiration are similarly disturbed. The panting, distressed efforts of breathing, side-long tumbling, anhelation and final semi-consciousness of the hunted stag or hare are a good example of acute auto-intoxication ending in death. This latter deplorable condition is not unknown among the annals of human strife for athletic honors, even with our present advanced knowledge of physiology.
